

Friday December 21st, 2007 at 6:30pm
20th Floor of Daejeon City Hall

The International Exchange Center
Presents

An Evening of Goodwill

The Daejeon International Exchange Center will be hosting a drinks and hors d'oeuvres reception to share information and promote international friendship.

All foreign residents of Korea are invited to this social event to meet local officials and other Koreans who are interested in promoting cross-cultural communication and education.

SO COME ONE—COME ALL!

Join the fun, enjoy the food and add your voice to the growing number of foreigners and Koreans who are working together to build stronger community ties, greater community spirit and an abiding friendship that will see us through the oil spill disaster and into a brighter future.

If possible please confirm your attendance by calling Woo Sun Ho at 223-0789 or 011-9406-7027.

Featured Events

- A short address by Expat Helping Hands to provide information and first hand accounts of the oil spill disaster that is wreaking havoc on the west coast of the Tae-an region.
- A partnership between the Daejeon International Center, Beautiful Store and Expat Helping Hands will be announced to help promote the used clothing campaign.
- The sale of 20 framed photographs of Daejeon, taken by local foreigners, the proceeds of which will be donated to the oil spill clean-up.
- Donations boxes will be made available for everyone who wishes to contribute to the oil spill clean-up fund and the 'Bag of Rice' campaign.